CHICAGO BOTANIC GARDEN

The Woman's Board of the Chicago Horticultural Society is pleased to welcome you to our 46th annual plant sale.

This spring, the Bloomin' Festival features an exciting, expanded array of plants that are particularly suited to Chicago growing conditions. A marketplace offers baked goods, organic produce, pottery, and tool sharpening.

Billed as the Midwest's premier plant sale, our event showcases more than 25,000 annuals, ferns, fruit and vegetable plants, geraniums, herbs, native wildflowers, ornamental grasses, perennials, roses, dahlias, shade perennials, shrubs, and vines. In consultation with Chicago Botanic Garden horticulturists, our plant sale committee has carefully selected the very best varieties to sell, whether new on the market or tried and true. Look for some of the latest Chicagoland Grows® offerings in baptisia, echinacea, polygonatum, and veronica. Stachys officinalis 'Pink Cotton Candy' is a "must have," according to Richard Hawke, the Garden's plant evaluation manager. We select sale vendors as carefully as we select the plants. A full listing of vendors, along with their offerings, appears inside this publication.

Garden staff, members of the Woman's Board, master gardeners, and volunteers will be on hand for the duration of the sale to advise and consult with guests. Horticulturists will give gardening demonstrations and share tips to help launch your planting efforts.

Special thanks go to Bloomin' Festival Chair Kim Visokey and Vice Chair Nancy Kurz for their amazing and energetic leadership. We applaud Manager of Plant Sales and Flower Shows Stephanie Lindemann and her assistant, Jillian Jablonski, for their vitality, dedication, and knowledge. The Garden staff was invaluable to our plant selection committee. We are so grateful to the many volunteers for their generous assistance and to Manager of Volunteer Services Judy Cashen, who organizes this effort so efficiently. Finally, kudos to Director of Visitor Events & Programs Jodi Zombolo and her staff for their creative efforts to make this event enjoyable and special for adults and children.

We thank you for shopping with us, and hope you enjoy your time at Bloomin' Festival 2012.

As always, proceeds will support the Garden's mission to promote the enjoyment, understanding, and conservation of plants and the natural world.

Catherine C. Kirby
President of the Woman's Board

Admission

To attend member-only hours, please present your valid membership card, or you may purchase a membership at the sale. Individual members are entitled to one admission only, for the member. If you wish to bring another member from your household, please upgrade to a family or supporting membership. For more information, call the Membership Department at (847) 835-8215 or 835-8209.

Bring Your Wagon!

Shopping carts will be available, but as you who have attended this sale know, we run out immediately; so please bring your own. (If we had a cart for each of you, there would be no room for plants!) Should you decide on a large specimen or have a “larger-than-life” order (which we love), we will provide help in loading.

Payment

We encourage you to assist us in maximizing our support of the Garden by using cash or checks. However, if you wish to use a credit card, we will gladly accept Visa, MasterCard, and Discover.

Fall Bulb Festival

As you plan for the upcoming gardening season, remember to save room for bulbs. In the fall, the Woman’s Board will hold its annual bulb sale, with more than 250 varieties of old favorites and many new, unusual, and hard-to-find fall-, spring-, and summer-flowering bulbs. Mark your calendar now for the Fall Bulb Festival, October 5 to 7, 2012.

Demonstrations

Visitors can enjoy demonstrations and live music while shopping the plant sale and open-air market.

Friday

Chicagoland Grows

Established in 1986, Chicagoland Grows® is a unique partnership among the Chicago Botanic Garden, The Morton Arboretum, and the Ornamental Growers Association of Northern Illinois (OGA), dedicated to developing, selecting, testing, and marketing a diversity of plants from landscape trees to shrubs, perennials, and grasses, all well adapted to Midwestern and equivalent landscapes.

The program's success is due to the complementary resources each of the three partners contributes to the collaboration.

The Chicago Botanic Garden's plant breeding program has contributed seven perennial selections to Chicagoland Grows, with many more perennial plants currently undergoing propagation and nursery trials, while the Garden's plant evaluation program systematically evaluates the Chicagoland Grows plants and provides practical data such as bloom dates, disease and pest resistance, growth rates, and other ornamental attributes that are used to select and market the plants.

The Morton Arboretum has contributed nine trees and six shrubs to Chicagoland Grows, with many more promising woody plants from its historic collections, plant exploration trips (both national and international), and its breeding and selection program all being evaluated for potential introduction.

The individual OGA nurseries have contributed plants to the program, conduct propagation and field and container trials of potential new introductions, and are in the vanguard of bringing the program's selections to the marketplace by growing, marketing, and selling high-quality specimens of the plants to landscape contractors, other nurseries, and garden centers throughout the Chicago region, the Midwest, and beyond.

The program has licensed well over one hundred additional wholesale and retail nurseries and commercial tissue culture laboratories throughout the United States and in other countries to bring the Chicagoland Grows introductions to landscapes with comparable climates literally around the world.

Baptisia* 'Midnight' Midnight Prairieblues™ False Indigo (2008 introduction)

The plant boasts an upright, vase-shaped habit with extremely long inflorescences bearing deep blue-violet flowers. This plant stays in bloom for nearly the entire month of June – a good seven to ten days longer than most other Baptisia. Mature plants grow to 3½' to 4' wide and 4' to 5' tall. Long-lived and drought tolerant. Developed by Dr. Jim Ault at Chicago Botanic Garden, and introduced by Chicagoland Grows®.

Baptisia* 'Solar Flare' Solar Flare Prairieblues™ False Indigo (2008 introduction)

This selection has a vase-shaped habit at its base with a dense broad head of attractive blue-green foliage above. Flowers initially are a lemon-yellow color, taking on a unique orange to violet blush with age. The only Baptisia on the market with this flower color! Mature plants measure 3' to 4' tall and 4' to 4½' wide. Developed by Dr. Jim Ault at Chicago Botanic Garden, and introduced by Chicagoland Grows®.

Baptisia* × bicolor 'Starlite' Starlite Prairieblues™ False Indigo (2007 introduction)

This selection boasts 24" flower stems bearing a profusion of bicolored blooms that are a lovely shade of periwinkle-blue with contrasting butter cream keels. One of the most floriferous Baptisia on the market. A medium-sized plant growing to 3' tall by wide. Developed by Dr. Jim Ault at Chicago Botanic Garden, and introduced by Chicagoland Grows®.

Baptisia* × varicolor 'Twilite' Twilite Prairieblues™ False Indigo (2006 introduction)

An extremely robust and vigorous Baptisia, plants can produce upward of a hundred flowering stems covered with deep violet-purple flowers highlighted by lemon-yellow keels. Enjoy the symmetrical habit and blue green foliage all summer. Mature plants measure 5' tall and 6' wide. A Baptisia on steroids! Developed by Dr. Jim Ault at Chicago Botanic Garden, and introduced by Chicagoland Grows®.

Echinacea* ‘Burgundy Fireworks’ Meadowbrite™
Coneflower (2011 introduction)

‘Burgundy Fireworks’ at less than 18” tall by wide is more compact than many coneflower selections currently on the market. The flowering stems are a deep burgundy color in spring and fall. But most unique about this selection are the deep beet-red ray flowers, which are not only upturned, but are individually fused into quills. It’s long blooming as well. No other coneflower has this combination of traits! Developed by Dr. Jim Ault at Chicago Botanic Garden, and introduced by Chicagoland Grows®.

Echinacea* ‘CBG Cone2’ Pixie Meadowbrite™ Coneflower
(2007 introduction)

This delightful mini-coneflower yields a profusion of perky, vibrant pink blooms from July to September. It has a denser, more compact habit than typical of coneflowers, growing to 18” high x 20” to 24” wide. Selected especially for hardiness, drought tolerance, longevity, and garden durability to make a truly unique, petite coneflower. Developed by Dr. Jim Ault at Chicago Botanic Garden, and introduced by Chicagoland Grows®.

Stachys officinalis* ‘Pink Cotton Candy’ Pink Cotton
Candy Betony (2010 introduction)

This durable and attractive plant features two-toned dark and light pink flowers, resulting in an overall vibrant bright pink floral display. Flowers are copiously produced for eight weeks from late June to late August on 12-inch upright inflorescences against a backdrop of attractive deep green foliage. Discovered at the Chicago Botanic Garden by plant evaluator Richard Hawke.

Polygonatum* ‘Prince Charming’ Solomon’s Seal
(2012 introduction)

This vigorous selection of Solomon’s seal produces attractive green foliage that can take on a bluish cast in full sun. Creamy-white flowers are produced in spring, followed by green berries that turn purple in autumn. The foliage turns an attractive golden yellow in autumn. A vigorous spreader, yet compact, growing only to 12” of height. Very adaptable, grows in shade to full sun, and medium moisture to dry soils. Selected by Brent Horvath at Intrinsic Perennial Gardens, Inc., Hebron, Illinois, and co-introduced by Chicagoland Grows®.

Veronica* ‘Tidal Pool’ Prostrate
Speedwell
(2012 introduction)

This hybrid speedwell covers itself with medium to deep blue-violet flowers from late April into mid-May, then settles into an attractive, dense groundcover with small oak-like leaves the remainder of the year. Uniform and fast spreading, plants grow only 4” tall but to 3’ wide in a year or two. Will tolerate some light foot traffic. Well-drained soils recommended. Very drought tolerant. Developed by Dr. Jim Ault at Chicago Botanic Garden, and introduced by Chicagoland Grows®.

Veronica* ‘Whitewater’ Prostrate Speedwell
(2011 introduction)

This vigorous groundcover is covered with ½”-wide glistening white flowers from late April to late June, with a peak bloom in mid-May. ‘Whitewater’ forms a dense low carpet, growing 4” to 6” tall and spreading 12” to 18” wide in a single season. The glossy dark-green leaves turn an attractive burgundy to bronze in winter months. Full sun to partial shade on a medium to dry, well drained soil is recommended. Discovered as a white-flowered branch sport of Veronica ‘Waterperry Blue’ by John Wachter at Elite Growers, Inc., Ingleside, Illinois. Co-introduced by Chicagoland Grows®.
