

CHICAGO BOTANIC GARDEN

Flower-Arranging Tour (Available Spring and Summer)

Learn the art of arranging on a close up walking tour of blooms and plants in the Garden. Then get a hands-on experience with a workshop. After all that work, enjoy a relaxing boxed lunch.

10:30 to 11:15 a.m. – Blooms and Landscape Plants for Flower Arranging Tour

Join Garden staff on a walking tour that highlights seasonal plants for flower arranging. Blooms, branches, leaves, and fruits are all tools in the art of arranging. Learn about plants to use in making your own arrangements and discover how to combine them with other flowers, foliage, and elements.

11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. – Arranging Store-Bought Bouquets Class

Learn how to make the perfect arrangement out of a store-bought bouquet! You can buy them anywhere and with a few tips, you can learn how to make the most out of them. This class features fresh flower arrangements and quick design tips. Book this class as a demonstration only or enhance your experience with a “make your own bouquet” workshop.

1 to 2 p.m. – Lunch

Enjoy a boxed lunch in one of our rooms with a view. Our menu is sure to please your group. Then spend the rest of your day on your own enjoying our 385 acres, including 24 display gardens and three natural habitats.

The Group Tour package includes the following:
