

CHICAGO BOTANIC GARDEN

Lenhardt Library Tour (Available Tuesday through Friday)

One of the greatest treasures of the Chicago Botanic Garden is the Lenhardt Library. This tour package includes a look at the rare book reading room, a library tour, an exhibition tour, and many more great features.

Arrive at the Garden and browse in the Garden Shop before departing on your tram ride. Make sure to stop by the kiosk in front of the Visitor Center, which displays several kinds of flowers currently in bloom at the Garden.

Enjoy the Grand Tram Tour or the Bright Encounters Tour. Hear one of our great tour guides describe the Garden's history and its plants, all from the comfort of your seat on the tram!

Enjoy a boxed lunch from our Garden Café in one of our great facilities with a view. Our selections are sure to please your group!

The Lenhardt Library, established in 1951, contains approximately 25,000 titles including books, DVDs, videos, slides, periodicals, nursery catalogs, and a rare book and journal collection with approximately 3,000 titles from the fifteenth to the nineteenth centuries. This tour includes a viewing of selected rare books as well as a tour of the library's most current exhibition. After your tour, make sure to stroll through the rest of the Regenstein Center and the surrounding Gardens before your departure.

Lenhardt Library Tour includes the following:

- Free parking
- Private dining for groups who book lunch
- A 10 percent discount on all purchases at the Garden Shop
- Reserved tram tickets for groups who purchase tram option
