

CHICAGO BOTANIC GARDEN

Membership in the Garden Heritage Society of the Chicago Botanic Garden is offered to those who have:

- Provided for the Chicago Botanic Garden in a will or living trust.
• Established an income-producing gift plan for which the Chicago Botanic Garden is a beneficiary (such as a charitable remainder trust, a charitable gift annuity, or a charitable lead trust).
• Designated the Chicago Botanic Garden as a beneficiary of a retirement plan.
• Arranged for the Chicago Botanic Garden to have a remainder interest in a home or farm.
• Made a gift of a life insurance policy to the Chicago Botanic Garden.
• Made other estate provisions benefiting the Chicago Botanic Garden.

Describe below the provisions you have made which qualify you for membership in the Garden Heritage Society. (The terms of the gift will remain confidential.)

Three horizontal lines for describing provisions.

Although not necessary for membership, please feel free to share the approximate value of your planned gift. $ _____

If desired, please provide either a copy of the relevant portion of the legal documents in which your gift is described, or a letter from you or your financial or legal adviser describing your future gift to the Garden.

Name or names if a joint gift (please print) _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

_____ I/we would be pleased to be included in the Garden Heritage Society honor rolls as listed above.

_____ I/we prefer not to be listed but will accept other benefits of membership (such as invitations to special events and complimentary golf cart tours).

Signature _____ Date _____

Signature _____ Date _____

In legal documents intending to name the Chicago Botanic Garden as beneficiary of a planned gift, the proper wording is "to the Chicago Horticultural Society, an Illinois not-for-profit corporation, Glencoe, Illinois."