

Symphony in Bloom

A Musical Journey through Greece's Botanical Gardens with Keith Lockhart of the Boston Pops

Aboard the Deluxe Le Champlain
October 17 – 25, 2026

Dear Members and Friends of the Chicago Botanic Garden,

We are delighted to invite you on a truly extraordinary voyage through the Greek Isles, where the wonders of nature, history, and music come together in perfect harmony. This exclusive 7-night journey aboard PONANT's luxury ship, Le Champlain, is designed for English-speaking travelers seeking an immersive and enriching travel experience.

Join us as we set sail from Athens on an unforgettable exploration of Greece's most storied destinations. From the Bronze Age ruins of Knossos on Crete to the charming, whitewashed villages of Santorini, the medieval streets of Rhodes, and the sacred island of Delos, each port of call offers a unique perspective on the region's rich history and vibrant culture.

In Athens, explore the Zappeion Gardens, offering a stunning blend of French geometrical and English-style design. Then, journey to Crete to experience agricultural heritage at a traditional Minoan farm and local winery. In Rhodes, enjoy the tranquil beauty of Rodini Park, one of the world's first landscaped parks, along with the historic Kallithea Springs, known for its stunning architecture and seaside charm.

In addition to expert-led excursions included in every port, this voyage features an exceptional musical program curated by Boston Pops conductor Keith Lockhart. Aboard ship, you will be treated to private performances by world-class musicians, including pianist Jihye Chang, cellist Alistair MacRae, soprano Allison Pohl, violist Scott Rawls, violinist Wendy Rawls, and violinist Benjamin Sung. From folkloric dance performances in Crete to a celebration of traditional Greek instruments in Santorini, music will provide an evocative backdrop to your exploration of these legendary isles.

PONANT's hallmark of luxury and discovery ensures that your journey will be both seamless and deeply engaging. Your experience includes transfers before and after the cruise, enriching talks and discussions with expert guides, and curated shore excursions that immerse you in the sights, sounds, and flavors of the Aegean. With a limited number of guests on board, you will enjoy personalized service and exclusive access to some of Greece's most remarkable sites.

We hope you will join us for this incredible journey through the Aegean, where history, culture, gardens, and music intertwine to create an experience like no other. Space is limited, so we encourage you to reserve your place soon.

We look forward to welcoming you on board!

Sincerely,

DEPART US FOR ATHENS, GREECE

Saturday, October 17

ARRIVE ATHENS, GREECE | OVERNIGHT

Upon arrival at Athens International Airport Eleftherios Venizelos (AIA) on October 17, you will be warmly welcomed and transferred to the NYX Esperia Palace Hotel Athens (or similar), where elegance and comfort set the tone for your stay. In the evening, gather with your fellow travelers for a welcome reception. Dinner will be at your leisure. While in Athens, located on the Saronic Gulf, explore its UNESCO-listed monuments; lively districts such as Plaka with its vibrant streets and enticing aromas; and renowned museums, including the National Archaeological Museum and the Cycladic Art Museum, showcasing the city's rich cultural heritage. (R)

Sunday, October 18

ATHENS | EMBARK

After breakfast, drive from your hotel located in the heart of Athens to the Zappeion Gardens, spanning 83,000 square meters, first planted in 1857. Architect Theodore Hansen and French designer Désiré Matton shaped its evolution from French geometrical to English-style gardens. Evangelis Zappas envisioned it enhancing the Ilissos riverside. Nearly 200 plane trees and eucalyptus were planted, with irrigation added in 1932 by Ulen, which also donated the central fountain. Afterward, head to Plaka to enjoy lunch on your own in the oldest region of Athens, before transferring to the pier for embarkation. (B,D)

Monday, October 19

HERAKLION, CRETE

Visit a family-owned Minoan farm to discover

Crete's rich agricultural traditions, including native herbs, honey, olive oil, and time-honored local crafts, before continuing to a nearby Cretan winery for a tour and tasting of regional wines paired with traditional local specialties. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, October 20

SANTORINI

Santorini, a striking volcanic gem in the Cyclades, boasts dramatic basalt cliffs and stunning Aegean views. In Fira, bougainvillea-lined terraces overlook the coast, while Oia's blue-and-white houses cascade down the caldera. In the south, explore Akrotiri's ancient ruins, preserved beneath volcanic ash from a catastrophic eruption. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, October 21

RHODES

Explore Rhodes Town, passing Mandraki Port, the Acropolis, and Apollo Temple. At Kallithea Springs, admire its stunning architecture, once a luxury spa, and enjoy its seaside charm. Then, visit Rodini Park, one of the world's first landscaped parks, known for its Roman aqueduct, lush vegetation, and roaming peacocks. Explore the Tomb of the Ptolemies, a Hellenistic monument carved into rock, offering a glimpse into Rhodes' ancient past. (B,L,D)

Thursday, October 22

BODRUM, TURKEY

Bodrum is located on the bays of Mugla on the west coast of Turkey. At the harbor entrance, you can't miss The Bodrum Castle of The Knights of St. John, the town's icon. Here you will be able to visit the Bodrum Museum of Underwater Archaeology housed within the castle precincts. In the center, the passages shaded by trees abound with diverse craft shops and cafés where you can sit and enjoy refreshing citrus fruit sorbets. A few streets away, the archaeological site of the Halicarnasse Mausoleum invites you to experience the old town's past, just as the old theater does, built on the slopes of the hillside looking out over the bay of Bodrum. (B,L,D)

Friday, October 23

DELOS, GREECE | MYKONOS

Delos, a UNESCO World Heritage Site near Mykonos, captivates with its ancient ruins, including the Stoa of Antigonos and Terrace of the Lions. Explore marble animal statues

TO BOOK YOUR SPACE: Please call (877) 415-0407, or email AffinityGuests@ponant.com

and stunning archaeological sites set against the Aegean's horizon. The theater steps on the hillside offer a perfect vantage point for breathtaking views. Nicknamed "Little Venice," Mykonos charms with its waterfront Alefkandra district, colorful loggias, and iconic windmills. Pelicans roam the old port, while bougainvillea adorns whitewashed streets. Wander the pedestrian alleys, glimpse the coastline, and escape to the island's quieter northern beaches for a perfect blend of history, beauty, and seaside allure. (B,L,D)

Saturday, October 24

HYDRA

This unique Saronic island, east of the Peloponnese, is a car-free haven. Its harbor town rises along a mountainous bay, lined with colorful caiques and grand stone mansions. Stroll the waterfront to the Historical Archives Museum, or visit the elegant Villa Koundouriotis, showcasing collections from Athens' National History Museum. (B,L,D)

Sunday, October 25

DISEMBARK ATHENS | DEPART FOR HOME

Disembark after breakfast, before transferring to the airport for flights homeward. (B)
