Our exploration of the gardens of the Pacific Northwest starts with a morning visit to the International Rose Test

Private garden in Portland

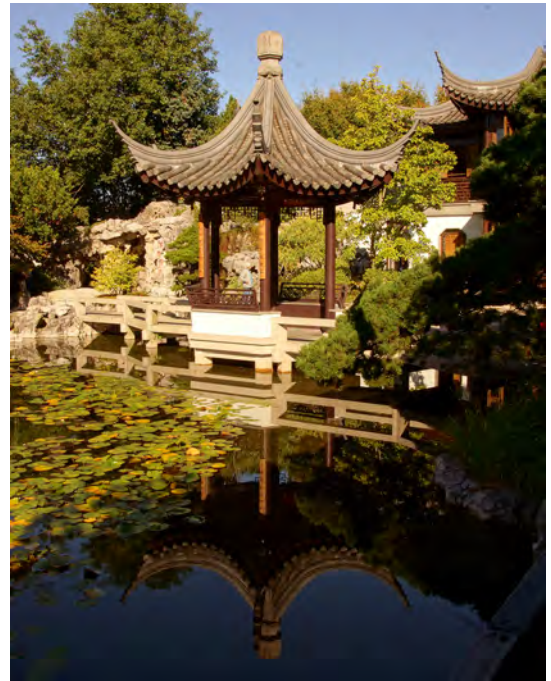

Portland Japanese Garden

Garden where we have some time on our own to 'smell the roses' and enjoy this excellent collection of roses from all over the world. Conceived in 1915, this garden was a safe haven for European hybrid roses during World War I. Afterward, we have a guided tour of the beautiful Portland Japanese Garden. Begun in 1963, the garden represents the strong connection between the people of Portland and the country of Japan. Next, we make our way to see the Columbia River Gorge and the magnificent Multnomah Falls, before returning to enjoy a get-acquainted dinner at McMenimin's Edgefield Restaurant. Lodging: Portland \(B\)\(D\)

Day Three – Tuesday, June 23

We begin our day with a visit to two lovely private gardens. Portland has a unique network of garden enthusiasts who eagerly open their gardens for us and share the challenges of gardening in Oregon. In the afternoon, we visit Lan Su Chinese Garden, one of the city's great treasures. Built by craftsmen from Suzhuo, China, Lan Su is as authentic a Chinese garden as you will find anywhere. We take time for dinner before our evening flight to Vancouver. Lodging: Hotel Blu, Vancouver \(B\)

Day Four – Wednesday, June 24

Our morning in Vancouver begins with a driving tour of the city to see the highlights of this intriguing city by the sea. Our tour ends at VanDusen Botanical Garden, an amazing 55-acre garden in the heart of the city. Afterward, we have a guided tour through the University of British Columbia Botanical Garden on the campus of UBC. We explore the new TreeWalk, a new addition to the garden. Afterward, we enjoy the beautiful Nitobe Memorial Garden, a traditional Japanese Tea and Stroll garden, considered to be one of the most authentic Japanese gardens in all of North America. Lodging: Vancouver \(B\)

Private garden outside Vancouver

Day Five – Thursday, June 25

Today we venture outside the city to visit two extraordinary private gardens located very close to the American border. Like Portland, Vancouver has a perfect climate for growing plants and therefore many garden enthusiasts create remarkable private gardens for themselves. After our return to Vancouver, the rest of the afternoon is free to explore the city on your own. Lodging: Vancouver \(B\)\(L\)

Butchart Gardens in Victoria

Day Six – Friday, June 26

Today we journey from Vancouver to Victoria by coach and ferry, all the while surrounded by exquisite scenery. We reach Victoria in time to visit the incomparable Butchart Gardens with 55 acres of stunning horticultural displays woven into the remains of an old rock quarry. We enjoy high tea at the garden before driving into Victoria proper where two marvelous private gardens await our arrival. Lodging: DoubleTree by Hilton, Victoria \(B\)\(T\)

Day Seven – Saturday, June 27

We return to the U.S. today aboard a ferry from Victoria to Port Angeles, Washington. It is a 90-minute crossing of the Strait of Juan de Fuca. After disembarking the ferry, we drive to the seacoast town of Port Townsend for lunch and free time for shopping. On our way to Seattle, we see extraordinary scenery before catching the Bainbridge Island Ferry to Seattle where we stay for our final four nights. Lodging: The Andra Hotel, Seattle \(B\)

Day Eight – Sunday, June 28

We gather in the lobby this morning to meet our guide for our walking tour of Pike Place Market. We then drive to the base of the Space Needle to see Chihuly Garden and Glass, a museum and outdoor space devoted to Tacoma's world famous glass artist, Dale Chihuly. We finish the day with a short drive to Medina in east Seattle to visit a remarkable private garden there. Lodging: Seattle \(B\)

Dan Hinkley's garden, Windcliff

Day Nine - Monday, June 29

Bainbridge Island is our destination via ferry to visit Bloedel Reserve—150 acres of a unique blend of natural woodlands and beautifully landscaped gardens. Afterward, we have a picnic lunch at the quaint Country Store in Indianola before our special visit to Windcliff, the home and garden of Dan Hinkley. Heronswood, Dan's former garden and nursery, is our final stop for the day before the Kingston Ferry takes us back to Seattle. Lodging: Seattle \(B\)\(L\)

Day Ten – Tuesday, June 30

Today you have the entire day free to explore Seattle on your own. Our hotel is located right in the heart of the city close to interesting places and fun activities. Later on this evening we have a farewell dinner at one of Seattle's finest restaurants. Lodging: Seattle \(B\)\(D\)
